

Teach Peace Foundation
Education for a more peaceful world!

Martin Luther King, Jr. identified the ingredients for greatness when he said: "Everybody can be great...because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve....You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love."

Discussion Questions

1. How would you feel if you had to carry water for a mile or more, for your daily survival?
2. If you could help a village make their drinking water clean for $150 each year, would you help them?
3. Why are many people in countries like Ghana struggling to live on less than $2 a day?
4. What can we as consumers do to protect children from being exploited?
5. What happens when rice food aid is given to a country producing rice?
6. Is there a connection between economic injustice and support for groups advocating terrorism?
7. Has the West replaced slavery with economic chains?
8. What is preventing people in Ghana and many other countries in Africa from breaking the cycle of poverty?
9. Why are thousands of young girls, often 12 years old, leaving their families?
10. Why are the real costs of the products we consume hidden?
11. Why does the gift of education mean the gift of hope?
12. How does a college education increase opportunities to break the cycle of poverty?

For the full documentary, visit <http://www.teachpeace.com/greatafricanscandal.htm>.